

WELCOME TO THE WILDMAN

A haven of escapism in the heart of the historical 'Norwich Lanes'. We're here for carefully crafted cocktails, great beers, delicious wines and beautiful coffees. It's the perfect place to while away a few hours at any time of the day.

For anyone wondering, our name comes from the tale of 'Peter the Wild Boy'. First spotted in 1724 wandering naked in Hertswold Forests near Hanover, Germany. Filthy, with matted straggly hair, he was reported to only talk in grunts and squeaks. Fast forward the story a little and Peter eventually ends up in Norwich, after a short period at St James' Palace with King George 1st.

You can find out more about him and his story at The Museum of Norwich at The Bridewell.
